

“Health, Healing and Hope”

7 p.m. Wednesday, May 2
Laurel United Methodist Church
631 W. South Grand Ave.
Springfield, Ill.

Dr. Scott Morris Physician and Minister

St. John’s Methodist Church and Health Center in Memphis, Tenn.

In 1986, Dr. Morris began what has become the nation’s largest faith-based health clinic for Memphis’ working poor, now with 30,000-plus patients.

A community event in observance of Cover the Uninsured Week

Featuring a combined interfaith choir
Free and open to the public

Hosted by

Greater Springfield Interfaith Association, Islamic Society of Greater Springfield, Memorial Medical Center, Ministerial Alliance, St. John’s Hospital, SIU School of Medicine, Sangamon County Medical Society and its Alliance, Springfield Branch NAACP and Springfield Jewish Federation

For more information, call Isabel at the Sangamon County Medical Society, 525-0765

“Eternal God, we praise you for giving us life and calling us into the community to care for each other ... Strengthen in us a determination to solve the problem of uninsured Americans, especially our children, so that all may have the care they need. Amen.”

www.covertheuninsured.org