

Lonnie Russell Undergraduate Research Award Application

One or two awards (up to $500) will be offered each year. To apply for this award, the student must have conducted research in one of the Department of Physiology research laboratories in the past year. The applicant must fill out the form below, and have their research advisor (must be a faculty member in the Department of Physiology) write a supporting letter of recommendation. The completed application, with supporting letter, should be sent to the Undergraduate Advisor for the Department of Physiology (Dr. James S. Ferraro, room 151D, LS II, mail code 6512). The completed applications will be reviewed by the Department's Undergraduate Committee, and the name(s) of the chosen applicant(s) will be forwarded to the Department Chairman (Dr. Rick Steger) for final approval. The application deadline is February 17, 2006.

Name of Applicant _____

Phone Number _____

Email Address _____

Declared Major _____

Year (circle whichever applies) Freshman / Sophomore / Junior / Senior

GPA _____

Courses taken within the Department of Physiology _____

Research Advisor _____

Duration Worked in Lab _____

On the back of this sheet of paper, or on attached sheets, provide a Curriculum Vita (résumé) and include a statement which describes the work performed in the lab, as well as, your future plans and goals.

What would you use the award for? (commodities for the lab, textbooks, travel)