

Southern Illinois University School of Medicine
Instructor of Clinical Psychiatry (Fellow) SMS 2005

The Department of Psychiatry of Southern Illinois University School of Medicine is seeking to hire a full-time faculty member to fill the position of a one year fellowship for an individual with doctoral level training in behavioral medicine or health psychology. The fellowship will begin in July 2011.

The incumbent will provide clinical services for the psychology component of the Simmons Cancer Institute; documentation of clinical contact with patients; consultation to providers of medical and psychosocial services for patients; and participation in educational and outreach programs within or sponsored by the Simmons Cancer Institute. Services include psychosocial support services for cancer patients and their families, psychological assessment and treatment of inpatients and outpatients, and participation in coordinating complementary services through mind/body programs. The incumbent will also be expected to participate in research functions related to specialty interest and expertise. Supervision for licensure as a psychologist is available as part of the training experience.

The SIU Department of Psychiatry is a dynamic, expanding organization dedicated to excellence in clinical service and teaching with a steadily expanding research effort. Salaries are competitive and include a great benefits package. Springfield is the state capitol of Illinois. Recreational and cultural activities abound in this lovely mid-sized town with big city amenities.

Qualified applicants will have a Doctoral degree (Ph.D. or Psy.D.) in psychology and interest or experience in working with a medical population. This position has been designated as security sensitive and employment is contingent upon the result of a criminal background investigation. Deadline for receipt of applications is March 1, 2011 or until filled. SIU SOM is an EEOC employer. For more information contact:
