Southern Illinois University School of Medicine Assistant Professor of Clinical Psychiatry SMS 1826

The Department of Psychiatry of Southern Illinois University School of Medicine is seeking to hire a full-time faculty member to fill the position of Assistant Professor of Clinical Psychiatry within the Division of Psycho-Oncology.

The incumbent will provide clinical services, conduct research, and participate in program development for the psychology component of the Simmons Cooper Cancer Center. Services include psychosocial support services for cancer patients and their families, psychological assessment and treatment of inpatients and outpatients, and participation in coordinating complementary services through mind/body programs. The incumbent will also be expected to participate in the development and delivery of instructional activities to medical students, residents and allied health professionals, as well as research functions related to specialty interest and expertise. The SIU Department of Psychiatry is a dynamic, expanding organization dedicated to excellence in clinical service and teaching with a steadily expanding research effort. Salaries are competitive and include a great benefits package. Springfield is the state capitol of Illinois. Recreational and cultural activities abound in this lovely mid-sized town with big city amenities.

Qualified applicants must have a Doctoral degree in clinical, counseling, or health psychology or relevant mental health related field and be eligible for licensure as a clinical psychologist in the State of Illinois. This position has been designated as security sensitive and employment is contingent upon the result of a criminal background investigation. Deadline for receipt of applications is September 30, 2008 or until filled. SIU SOM is an EEOC employer.
