General Resources

1. FREIDA. <http://www.ama-assn.org/go/freida>
FREIDA Online is a database with over 8,600 graduate medical education programs accredited by the Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical Education, as well as over 200 combined specialty programs.
2. One frequently used piece of FREIDA is the Residency/Fellowship Training Program Search: <https://freida.ama-assn.org/Freida/user/viewProgramSearch.do>
View information about residency and fellowship programs, provided by program directors and updated continuously, as well as information about affiliated teaching institutions.
3. NRMP <http://www.aamc.org/nrmp>
The National Resident Matching Program (NRMP) is a private, not-for-profit corporation established in 1952 to provide a uniform date of appointment to positions in graduate medical education (GME) in the United States. Five organizations sponsor the NRMP:
 - American Board of Medical Specialties (ABMS)
 - American Medical Association (AMA)
 - Association of American Medical Colleges (AAMC)
 - American Hospital Association (AHA)
 - Council of Medical Specialty Societies (CMSS)
4. ERAS <https://www.aamc.org/students/medstudents/eras/>
ERAS® — the Electronic Residency Application Service is a service of the Association of American Medical Colleges (AAMC) and was created in 1995 to enhance medical students' transition to residency by reducing the amount of time spent on the application process. Using the Internet, ERAS transmits a standardized application, letters of recommendation (LoRs), the Medical Student Performance Evaluation (MSPE), transcripts, and other supporting credentials from applicants and designated dean's offices to program directors. ERAS also provides national statistics on applicant behavior by specialty.
5. Careers in Medicine <https://www.aamc.org/cim/>
Careers in Medicine (CiM) is a career planning program designed to help students choose a medical specialty and select and apply to a residency program. This four-phase process guides the student through the elements of career planning, including self-understanding, exploring a variety of medical careers, and finally choosing a specialty to meet your career objectives.
6. Career MD <http://www.careermd.com>
CareerMD is a comprehensive and centralized source of information on physician training and employment opportunities. Updated daily by program directors and employers, CareerMD's searchable databases make it easy to locate, research and compare opportunities in every state and every specialty.
