

SIU School of Medicine | Memorial Health System

WOUND CARE SYMPOSIUM

— Wounds from Head to Toe —

IEA Professional Development Center | 3440 Liberty Dr. | Springfield, IL
March 14, 2019

|         |                                                                                                                                                      |
|---------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 7:00am  | Registration Opens                                                                                                                                   |
| 8:00am  | Diabetes and Wound Healing: Nutrition ConsiderationsErin Zepp, MS, RD, LDN, CDE &amp; Lori Locca, APRN, CDE   Memorial Medical Center     |
| 9:00am  | How to Approach Diabetic Foot UlcerationsThomas Cockayne, DPM   Prairie Podiatry                                                          |
| 10:00am | Break                                                                                                                                                |
| 10:30am | Chronic Lower Extremity Ulcers: Causes and ManagementDouglas Hood, MD   Associate Professor   Division of Vascular Surgery   SIU Medicine |
| 11:30am | Lunch                                                                                                                                                |
| 12:30pm | Mindful AwarenessDana Bueno                                                                                                               |
| 1:00pm  | Pressure SoresMichael Neumeister, MD   Chair Department of Surgery   SIU Medicine                                                         |
| 1:45pm  | Burn Care: The Good, The Bad and The InfectedAmanda Ross, MD   PGY 6   Plastic Surgery Resident   SIU Medicine                            |
| 2:30pm  | Break                                                                                                                                                |
| 3:00pm  | Stomas and Enterocutaneous FistulasPrasad Poola, MD   Assistant Professor   Division of General Surgery   SIU Medicine                    |
| 4:00pm  | Adjournment                                                                                                                                          |

REGISTER NOW

