

Rotational Requirements for Residency

Year	Rotation	Blocks
1	FM Orientation	1
	Family Medicine Inpatient Service	4
	Community Medicine	1
	General Surgery	1
	Orthopedics/Sports Medicine	1
	Cardiology	1
	Outpatient Pediatrics	1
	Obstetrics	2
	Inpatient Pediatrics	1
	Continuity clinics 1–2 half days per week
2	Gynecology	1
	Inpatient Family Medicine	2
	Sports Medicine	1
	CQI/PM/Research	1
	Geriatrics/Palliative Care	1
	COPC/Prevention	1
	Intensive Care Unit	1
	Emergency Medicine	2
	Neurology/Nephrology	1
	Emergency Pediatrics/Nursery	1
	Elective	1
	Continuity clinics 3–4 half days per week
	3	Inpatient Family Medicine	2
Leadership/PM		1
Outpatient Pediatrics		1
Radiology/Urology		1
Newborn Nursery/Behavioral Health		1
Outpatient Family Medicine		1
Ophthalmology/Dermatology		1
Elective		5
Continuity clinics 4–5 half days per week
Longitudinal Rotations
Professionalism
Clinical Epidemiology & Evidence Based Medicine
Geriatric Medicine
Health Promotion and Disease Prevention
Human Behavior & Mental Health
Legal & Ethical Issues
Patient Education
Pharmacology
Practice Management
Procedural Skills
Laboratory Medicine
Radiology & Nuclear Medicine
Research & Scholarly Activity
Evidence Based Medicine

Electives

One elective block in PGY2; 5 elective blocks in PGY3. Residents desiring a subspecialty track will be encouraged to complete specific electives.

Anesthesia
 Behavioral Health
 Cardiology
 Family Medicine
 Geriatrics
 Infectious Disease
 Outpatient MAT
 Pain Management
 Patient Education
 Plastic Surgery
 POCUS
 Radiology
 Research
 Sleep Medicine
 Sports Medicine
 Individually Designed Elective

The program director reserves the right to restrict elective and sub-specialty rotations.