

FY22 Research Seed Grants (RSG) Call for Applications

Pre-Review Due Date: 4:00 p.m. on Monday, September 13, 2021

FINAL Due Date: 4:00 p.m. on Friday, October 1, 2021

Only electronic submission will be accepted.

IN FAIRNESS TO ALL, LATE APPLICATIONS WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED.

The goal of the Research Seed Grant Program is to assist faculty in generating preliminary data that can be used to support applications for extramural funding. Research Seed Grants (RSG) are evaluated for scientific merit by the Grant Review Committee (GRC).

Clinical or unestablished grant writers may submit proposals for pre-review. Contact the ADR Office immediately if interested.

Full guidelines for the RSG and forms are available at:
