Quincy's Calling

Urban Charm. Outdoor Fun.

With the backdrop of historic architecture, our downtown, The District, merges the past with a touch of modern. You can enjoy an array of dining options, seasonal farmers markets, special events, and a vibrant arts and entertainment scene with world-class cultural opportunities including the symphony, theatre, and festivals all within a few miles from home.

For outdoor lovers, our river access and extensive parks system offer something for everyone—whether sports, adventure, or just hanging out with the family and enjoying beautiful views. Some of the best deer hunting in the country are readily accessible, too. You really can have it all in Quincy.

Real Community.

From authentic local businesses that have been here for generations to a dedicated faith community and city leadership committed to building a bright future for all of its citizens, Quincy is a community of connections. Quincyans support each other and the common good.

Guidelines of the program are as follows:

- Up to a $5,000 rebate on residential property taxes paid on the first-year property bill on owner-occupied dwellings. The amount rebated is driven by individual property values but may not exceed $5,000.
- Up to a $3,500 rebate on residential rent/lease payments after six months or more of payments.
- Participants are eligible for either a residential property tax or a rent/lease rebate, not both.
- Rebates are available for individuals/families who relocate from outside Adams County to within the city limits of Quincy and take or maintain employment in Adams County.
- Remote workers who relocate within the city limits of Quincy but are employed by companies outside of Adams County are also eligible. The county employment restriction does not apply to remote employment.
- Rebates are available on a first-come/first-serve basis until a total of $125,000 in rebates are issued from this City of Quincy program.
